Novalis® Innovative Flooring Announces FloorScore® Certification for its Rigid Core Products

TORONTO, February 19, 2018 – Novalis® Innovative Flooring announced that its High Performance Core and High Density Core products have successfully passed SCS Global Services testing and fully qualify for FloorScore® certification.

These products include NovaFloor® Serenbe™ HDC, Lyndon™ HDC and NovaCore™ HPC; and AVA® SMPL™ HPC.

FloorScore® certifies that the flooring tested meets indoor air quality standards pertaining to the measurement of Volatile Organic Compounds (VOC's) emitted into the air.

"We are pleased that all of Novalis® flooring is FloorScore® certified by this trusted industry standard of indoor air quality," commented John Wu, President and CEO of Novalis Innovative Flooring.
